PRESS RELEASE

THE ROYAL CANADIAN LEGION ONTARIO COMMAND in Supporting Our Troops

On Monday, March 29, 2010 the Royal Canadian Legion, Ontario Command once again will show their support of our Canadian Military Troops. We not only support our soldiers deployed in foreign lands, but also those still serving at home on Canadian soil.

“Because of the recent events affecting this base, we felt the need to boost the moral of the base personnel and show that we are supporting them, 100%” says Ed Pigeau, Legion Provincial President.

Ontario Command will be distributing Tim Horton cash cards to every serving member of CFB Trenton, where approximately 3,500 soldiers and civilian personnel serve.

The presentation, to Col. David Cochrane, Commander of 8 Wing, CFB Trenton will be held at the Royal Canadian Legion, Branch 110 Trenton, 19 Quinte Street, Trenton, Ontario, at 11:00a.m. with CFB Trenton military personnel and Legion members attending.

Among the dignitaries present will be Col. David Cochrane, Commander of 8 Wing, CFB Trenton and Ed Pigeau, President of the Royal Canadian Legion Ontario Provincial Command; and Ontario Command’s Executive Director Dave Gordon and Assistant Executive Director Robyn Zettler.

For further information, please contact Dave Gordon or Mrs. Robyn Zettler at (905) 841-7999.
