

Tears rolling down

Tears were rolling down our cheeks
As we said goodbye to the ones we love
We hope we'll be back in a couple weeks.
Our families were torn apart
So much pain in my heart,
Thousands of people who died in the war
Some of us couldn't handle it anymore.
We fought together
Through any weather
The cities we saw were broken and bare,
You could smell the pain in the air,
We walked miles and miles on end
We said goodbye to at least one friend,
We would wish and pray
That we would be alive the next day.
The tears swelling in our eyes
As we say our last goodbyes,
To the soldiers strong and brave
Laying in their cold stone grave.
